The Dentist as Business Person: The Top 5 Hassles and How to Beat Them Once and For All!

Most dentists are 100% comfortable at chairside, but they lose sleep over what to do about their numbers, how to motivate their team to peak performance, diffusing staff conflicts, holding employees accountable, and other non-clinical "hassles", because they lack the confidence and know-how to handle these situations. Areas of focus:

- Knowing your numbers -- and using them to realize the full potential of the practice.
- Hiring the best staff – how to find the right people and bring out their best.
- Doing performance appraisals – how a few minutes of feedback will result in a more productive employee.
- Giving salary reviews – using as an occasion to motivate and get staff excited about their future with your practice.
- Taking the drama out of tough team situations – and coming out a hero!

Learning Objectives:

1. For attendees to have specific financial benchmarks allowing them to better manage their practices.
2. To approach hiring in a systematic fashion allowing for improved decision-making and orientation of new employees.
3. Learn how to separate performance appraisals and salary reviews and approach these meetings with a focus on the employees continued growth and development.
4. To approach difficult team situations with courage, clarity and confidence!

Learn how to turn the Top 5 Hassles into opportunities to improve and grow your business – and get better sleep immediately!
