The Course and Learning Objectives

The course covers “nuts and bolts” Clinical Oral Pathology in a way you’ve probably never experienced before! It focuses on oral cancer and other mucosal disorders commonly seen in the practice of dentistry and it’s presented by two highly experienced clinicians and educators in a casual, relaxed, and enjoyable atmosphere with ample opportunity for audience participation. The course is appropriate for general dentists, specialists, hygienists and physicians. Upon completing this course, participants should feel comfortable in addressing their patients’ concerns about oral cancer. Also, they will know how to recognize specific oral lesions, formulate a differential diagnosis, obtain a definitive diagnosis and know how to treat and manage these lesions .

The Presenters:

James F. Drummond, DDS, MSD, PhD: Emeritus Professor of Oral Pathology and Douglas D. Damm, DDS Professor of Oral Pathology, both at the University of Kentucky College of Dentistry. Both have extensive clinical and teaching experience and have authored numerous publications in Oral Pathology. For 25 years, they have presented the highly popular CE Course “Practical Oral Pathology for the Oral Health Practitioner” offered annually in Branson, MO.

About The Cruise:

This is an ALL-INCLUSIVE cruise—unique to Scenic. EVERYTHING is included at no additional cost. It includes: all airport transfers, taxes, port charges, gratuities, all beverages all day, a complementary mini-bar, a cocktail event in Regua, lunch with Flamenco dancing in Salamanca, a decadent dining experience in Porto, free wi fi internet, a wellness and fitness center and much more! Also unique to Scenic is the opportunity for ultimate freedom of choice with tours. You can join a traditional tour group at each port or alternatively you can design your own “Tailormade” GPS guided tour allowing you to visit the points of interest you choose at each port, at your leisure, at your own pace and be guided you back to the ship afterwards—you’ll never get lost! Airfare is not included.
